

Program	Theoretical sessions :	Practical sessions : Practical case and drafting an arbitral award
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fundamentals of International Arbitration - Main steps of the arbitral procedure from the Request of arbitration to the Arbitral award - Judicial cooperation - The arbitral award - Control of the arbitral award by the courts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Starting an arbitration procedure (before an institution or ad hoc) - Beginning of the procedure and first procedural incidents - Hearings - Deliberations and arbitral award - Drafting an arbitral award

Support material Videoconference
 Powerpoints
 Documentation handed out during the training course

The OHADAC project is cofinanced by the INTERREG Caraiïbes programme in respect of the European Regional Development Fund

Organisation Comity

Bâtonnier Charles Nicolas

Charles Nicolas is an Avocat registered at the Bar Association of Guadeloupe, Saint Martin and Saint Barthelemy, which he currently presides for the second time in his career.

Charles Nicolas is specialized in Personal injury law, and more specifically compensation for bodily harm. He defends the rights of victims of accidents or physical attacks, in order to preserve and guarantee their right to adequate compensation.

Thanks to the commitment of the successive Presidents of the Bar association of Guadeloupe, Saint Martin and Saint Barthelemy in favour of the OHADAC project, the Bar association has contributed to making this project a reality. In light of this background, Charles Nicolas has naturally accepted to include this training into the program of the week on « THE BAR'S CHALLENGES », and provided the necessary logistical arrangements to welcome the instructors and the participants.

Evelyne Démocrite

Evelyne Démocrite is an Avocat registered at the Bar association of Guadeloupe, Saint Martin and Saint Barthelemy. She has also been President of the Bar association of Guadeloupe, Saint Martin and Saint Barthelemy.

She is currently President of the Bar School.

Me Démocrite practices in the field of Civil law (family; succession; joined ownership); Labour law and she is also a Mediator.

A strong believer of the increasing importance of alternative means of dispute resolution, Evelyne Démocrite has organized a first training in Mediation in 2018 for members of the Bar association of Guadeloupe, Saint Martin and Saint Barthelemy, before being involved in the organization of this first training in International arbitration.

Catherine Sargenti

Catherine Sargenti is a Judge in Guadeloupe and Vice-President of the First Instance Tribunal in Basse Terre (Tribunal de Grande Instance).

Catherine Sargenti has presided the ACP Legal association since its creation in 2007. This association implements the OHADAC project, which is a project promoting legislative harmonization and the development of arbitration and mediation in the Caribbean. So far, the OHADAC project has produced harmonized legislations in the field of International Commercial Contracts; Conflict of Laws; Commercial Companies and International arbitration.

The OHADAC project is cofinanced by the INTERREG Caraïbes programme in respect of the European Regional Development Fund

Instructors

Sixto A. Sánchez Lorenzo:

Sixto Sánchez Lorenzo is a Conflict of Laws Professor at Grenade University (Spain), and regularly sits as International arbitrator.

Prof. Lorenzo is a Membre of the International Academy of Comparative law and Secretary General of the Instituto Hispano-luso-americano de Derecho internacional (IHLADI). Prof. Lorenzo has acted as coordinator in the context of the drafting of OHADAC Principles on International Commercial Contracts. He is also the author of several textbooks and articles in the fields of International arbitration and International Commercial Law.

Jacques S. Darche:

Jacques S. Darche is a member of the Quebec Bar and specialized in the dispute resolution of international commercial disputes before courts and arbitration institutions, through arbitration and mediation. He is responsible for the International Arbitration department of his law firm.

Me Darche is a multi-faceted litigator who strives for the best results for his clients. He is regularly retained by clients from a variety of backgrounds facing complex problems. He has extensive knowledge of and experience with the workings of Québec's civil courts, as well as the rules of various international commercial arbitral institutions.

Jérémy Jourdan-Marques :

Jérémy Jourdan-Marques is a Law Professor at the University of the Antilles (French West Indies). Prof. Jourdan-Marques is based in Pointe-à-Pitre, Guadeloupe.

He is the author of a PhD dealing with « State control of Arbitral Awards », which has been awarded two PhD prizes and published at LGDJ editions. His research and publications focus mainly on Civil procedure and Arbitration.

Marie-Camille Pitton :

Dr. Marie-Camille Pitton is at Attorney at law registered in New York, and an Avocat registered at the Versailles Bar. Dr Pitton is specialized in the field of International Arbitration and more generally alternative means of dispute resolution. As a Consultant for ACP Legal, Dr. Pitton is in charge of developing the arbitration and mediation dimension of the OHADAC project.

Until March 2017, Dr Pitton was Counsel at the ICC Court of International Arbitration (Paris), where she has supervised hundreds of arbitration proceedings connected to France, French-speaking Africa and the Middle East.

Registration bulletin: Certified Training in International Arbitration

The OHADAC project is cofinanced by the INTERREG Caraïbes programme in respect of the European Regional Development Fund

ORDRE DES AVOCATS

BARREAU DE GUADELOUPE
SAINT-MARTIN & SAINT-BARTHÉLEMY

Name : First name

Date, Place and Country of birth

Address:

Zip Code : I _ I _ I _ I _ I _ I

Phone number :

Profession:

Company :

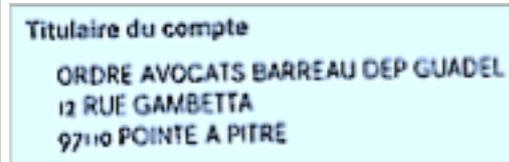

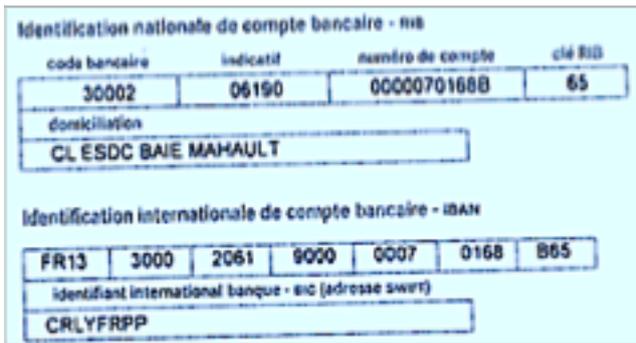

City and Country :

E-mail:

Duration of the training : 38h on-site

Place of the training : Maison des Avocats, 12 rue Gambetta, Pointe à Pitre, Guadeloupe

Please take note of my individual registration and payment of the amount of 500 Euros via wire transfer:

For information regarding the payment, please contact Me Démocrite: e.democrite.avocat@wanadoo.fr

Payment shall be made to the benefit of the “Ordre de l’Ecole des avocats du Barreau de la Guadeloupe” and the present registration bulletin shall be returned at the following address : 12 rue Gambetta 97110 POINTE A PITRE

Institution which I depend on (complete address) :

.....

Contact

Phone number : E-mail address

In :

..... On :

Signature of the participant:

The OHADAC project is cofinanced by the INTERREG Caraïbes programme in respect of the European Regional Development Fund

